This row list aims to help you get an overview of the power of heroes in Taptap Heroes, making it easier for you to choose the best heroes for you. A row list like this one is a great tool when you need to find a hero to fill a certain gap, but when you come around to build your perfect team, then there are other factors to consider as well. You can find out more about this in our team building guide. Here is a short rundown on what each row in this row list represents. Tier S – Champions in Row S are among the best in Taptap Heroes. S Heroes is an overwhelming power row, tool, or tankiness, all of which will help you tremendously in battle. You can safely pour resources into any of these heroes, because they are sure to help you progress. Row – Heroes in rows are well above average and perform very well in battle. Row heroes do well for a long time, and they are safe to pour resources into as well, especially if you play early. Some combinations of row heroes can outsw s row heroes. B Row – Heroes perform in Row B as you'd expect from strong heroes in Taptap Heroes. These heroes are a good choice to progress with for a while, but you'll probably want to replace them at some point. C Row – Heroes in Tier C perform below the average hero in Taptap Heroes. You can use Category C heroes at the start of the game, but you have to look to replace them as soon as you can. D Row – Heroes in row D of the worst heroes in Taptap heroes listed in this row list. We don't recommend spending resources on D-row heroes as you want to replace them as soon as possible. Having invading heroes in your team is essential, as you risk being able to do more damage than the enemy can recover and tank if you are not enough attackers. As attackers focus entirely on injury, they often defend very low and few, if any, supportive abilities. So, you can't exclusively use quarterback heroes, but they're still very important to have in your team. Here are a couple of the best attacking heroes in Taptap Heroes. Lindbergh Lindbergh is the killer of the Paradise faction and is generally considered one of the best attacking heroes in taptap heroes. In addition to his incredible attacking stats, he carries four skills, all well suited for battle. His blade-throat skill deals serious damage to 2 enemy backline heroes, enabling him to quickly get out of the injury vendors in the enemy team. He has three passive skills that increase his attack, crit rates, crit damage, and rebuild energy. At all, an excellent choice if you are looking for a powerful attacking hero. Mars Mars wanders the paradise flank which is another very powerful invading hero. Mars is a ranged hero with both high damaging abilities, but more importantly, a lot of real damage. Having real damage makes Mars able to quickly negate heroes with high defenses, which would otherwise collide a lot of damage. Mars, in other words, is a clear choice if your team fights down tanks with tons of defensive and defensive skills. The active skill of Mars is lightning eye, which trades damage to 4 random enemies and has a 60% chance of stun hit enemies for 2 rounds. Lightning eye deals increase damage when Mars health is below 20%. The best tank heroes to withstand enemy attacks during a long battle, having a tank is a major advantage. Tanks are heroes with high defensive stats and preferably some skills to complete your position. The initial goal of tanks is to give your team more viability, meaning it sometimes doesn't have the most damage output compared to attackers. So, you shouldn't bring too many tanks. Some tanks or out of tanks do, however, depending on almost as much damage as their damage vendors make them incredible heroes. Here's the Of the best tanks in the game. Valkyrie Valkyrie is considered the best tank in the game by most players. He is the warrior of the Alliance factor with one of the absolute highest health stats and defenses in Taptap Heroes. On top of his high defensive stats, he is also passive enhancing these more stats and passive skills that improve enemies and steal skill damage from enemies. Valkyrie Gungnir's active skill, which damages all enemy heroes at once and reduces your attack by 20% for 3 rounds. Valkyrie is one of the best tanks in the game because of all these factors. Monkey King Monkey is an interesting choice if you are looking for a tank. Their defensive stats are not as big as Valkyrie despite them well above the average champion. Monkey King, Hell Faction Warrior, one thing Valkrie lacks little, damage. Monkey King will, despite the excellent tank, trade the same amount, if not more damage than the invaders on your team. The reason for this is primarily the passive skill of the King Monkey, fighting the City, which gives him a 100% chance of attacking the enemy when king's monkey is attacked. Having the monkey king on the front as a tank his him tank repeatedly, which will activate the fight against the Comma over and over again. The result is a tank hero who slings a ton of damage during a fight. The Monkey King also has a resurrection skill, a rebirth, which makes him resurrection with maximum health and a 30% increase in injury for three occasions after reaching 0 health. Finally, the monkey king's active skill, limitless strike, damage deals to the entire enemy backline and applies a mark, which trades a lot of damage when triggered. If you are after both tankiness and damage, monkey king is a good choice. The best support heroes though champions support may not seem that useful as most high injury outputs and not defensive stats, support heroes are often the deciding factor in how powerful a team is. If your team doesn't have any supporting champions, chances are you'll lose to those. Support for heroes' skills is very different, ranging from attack-enhancing enthusiasts to powerful healing skills. Here are a couple of the best supporting heroes in Taptap Heroes. Squand is the spiritual squad of the Paradise faction with the skills and usefulness of the insecurable healing. Having healing in your team is a major advantage in longer fights, where Skuld comes in. His early healing comes from passive skill, the baptism of light, which heals three random coincidences each time Squand uses a basic attack. Skuld revived the first champion on his team to die in battle, bringing them to health by 77% while giving the rest of the team a heavy healing at the same time. Finally, Scould's active skill, divine revelation, both hurt all enemies, increase real damage for the entire team, heal all symings, increase crit rates, and have a 77% chance of eliminating all controls. In all, making Skuld one of the best support in the game. Phoenix is another amazing support champion who is focusing on the buffet From your team, Finch is a cleric of the mass wing. Phoenix deals a lot of damage to all enemies through its active skill, rejecting Lotus Firell, who also applies burns for 3 rounds. In addition, Finns' active skill has a 77% chance of reducing enemy defenses, adding 100 energy to a random ally, and increasing the attack by 30%. In addition to the burns of The Phoenix Active Skill, your first passive skill exerts a burn effect on the enemy with the greatest health as well while reducing your attack. Phoenix's second passive skill, Flame's ambition, is what makes him an incredible support hero. This skill increases the damage of all the hams on burned targets by ficide by 30%. Ultimately, Finns also has the ability to revive him once in each fight while healing all the symings for five rounds. If you need someone to increase the injury output of your entire team, Phoenix is an obvious choice. That will support us in a row list of the best heroes in Taptap Heroes as well as the best striker, tank, and heroes.
